WORKSHOP

CHANGES TO THE 2017 FIDIC SUITE OF CONTRACTS

Mr Kevin Spence will present this valuable workshop as part of the Association's ongoing mission to provide regular upskilling opportunities for everyone with an interest in Alternative Dispute Resolution. Please join us for snacks, drinks and networking after the event.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP:

After many years of interaction with the industry, the consulting profession and affected stakeholders, FIDIC formally announced the release of the new 2017 versions of the Red, Yellow and Silver Book contracts.

The emphasis of the presentation will be to highlight the differences between FIDIC 1999 and the latest edition, with special emphasis on the FIDIC Red Book.

Some of the topics to be covered will include a brief introduction to the new:

- Notice provisions;
- Claims Procedures;
- The enhanced Programme requirements in Sub-clause 8.3 [Programme];
- Advanced Warning mechanism;
- Employer's and Contractor's Claims;
- Disputes and Arbitration.

This approximately 2-hour presentation will not cover all the amendments but will emphasise the contract provisions, which generally are of importance to both Contractors and Engineers/Employers.
