LECTURE INVITATION

STRUCTURAL GUIDELINES ON AWARD WRITING

Please join us for snacks and drinks as Adv van der Walt discusses award writing.

Background:

An award is nothing more than a structured account of relevant facts and applicable law, with a conclusion to which the parties are bound by agreement. However, arbitrators often find themselves afflicted by writer's block when they have to put pen to paper. The discussion will focus on generally accepted award writing structures and guidelines which may assist arbitrators and aspirant arbitrators.

Adv Tjaart van der Walt:

Tjaart is a senior member of the Maisels Group of Advocates in Sandton. He was commended for Senior Consultus status by the Silk Committee of the Johannesburg Bar, awaiting the imminent signing of his letters patent by the President. He is a Fellow of the Association of Arbitrators (SA), a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (London), and a listed arbitrator for the Association of Arbitrators (SA) and for AFSA. Before his admission as an Advocate in 1995 he was employed as Legal Advisor, Public Prosecutor and Part-time Academic and practiced as an Attorney over a 10 year period. His practice includes general commercial arbitration and litigation with a focus on the law of contract and delict. His industry specific exposure as Advocate over more than 20 years includes petroleum, coal and platinum mining, agriculture, food and beverage, telecommunications, construction, forestry and banking.
